

"Whatever be the situation, the first step comes from the belief that one can do it."

Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam

Two days orientation programme was organised by YCS/YSM, MP Region from 18-19 April 2015 at AICUF Ashram, Bhopal. The Total number of participants was 65 from the following dioceses; namely Khandwa, Indore, Jhabua, Raipur and Bhopal.

Aim: To Train the young students with the knowledge of YCS/YSM Movement and to be leaders in their own respective dioceses and to motivate school and parish teenagers.

On 18 April Morning, at Inaugural Address, Rev. Sr. Keerti AC, the Headmistress of Primary Section, Campion School motivated the young students to be effective young leaders in the school promoting values and live life daily with inner peace and healing. Fr. Alexander and Sr. Jacintha and Mr. Amit Lakra motivated the young students as resource persons. The students were given formation about YCS/YSM movement, how to be leaders, why the church needs young people and how the young students can grow to be mature and spiritual. The benign presence of His Grace Most Rev. Leo Cornelio SVD was appreciable. In his address, His Grace emphasized that every student should be involved in the school and parishes actively. All must practice the methodology of YCS/YSM Movement, See, Judge and Act. After his address his grace met each student and blessed them with his prayer and blessings. His interaction with the students was an inspirational.

All the participants promised to commit and dedicate to spread the movement in MP Region, particularly in Bhopal Archdiocese.

- Mervyn John

