

"Whether you think you can or think you can't you're always right."

Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam

are the marginalised; thereafter there was a very useful interaction with the chief guest. He assured full support from the govt. He also reminded that we should not compromise our values for pressure from outside.

After this the seminar started on the topic "The Creative Leader". Sr. Nirmalini, the resource person spoke about the Salient features of the new Catholic education policy. She stressed on the inclusiveness in education is to be communitarian, participatory and relationship oriented. She stressed that we need to journey with the people who are entrusted to us with values of justice and integrity. The Christian values like transparency, trustworthiness and accountability. She quoted Cardinal Newman "education should be the soul of our institution" She emphasized that we all must be well versed with article 29 and 30 of the Indian Constitution. Our pattern of leadership should be based on Is: 42. She told that most of us like to line in the past glory which hinder our creativity.

On the Second day Mr. Dinesh Singh Kushwah, Joint Director of Bhopal Division, Chairman, M.P Regional Education

Commission were also present. In this message the Joint Director said that the Teachers should become role model to the children by our love and concern to them. We have to inculcate values to children so that they will become good citizens to serve the nation. We should not isolate ourselves from others. We must inculcate value system in our schools. If possible the Missionary schools in the villages should help the government schools to teach English. We must help each other. He also acknowledged the great services of the missionary schools doing in Madhya Pradesh.

The President, Bishop Anthony Chirayath, The Chairman of the Regional Education Commission, M.P. in his message told that our schools should be an example of Jesus love, service, compassion etc to others. We must treat all children, whether rich or poor as children of God. We must give more attention to weak and dull students and bring them up by giving more attention and make them good citizen and inculcate love to the Nation. He asked the audience what we mean by mission. He told that mission should be in our blood, in our life. Christian institution is there to transform our children to spiritual children. We should not discriminate anybody in our educational system. Then there was general body meeting CDES was held. Fr. Kulandai thanked everyone. At the end the Secretary thanked each participant for their part they played and their valuable presence.

Fr Thomas Attummel - Secretary
AMPICS